Comments:

- Q1 - Options times, school events when parents come in all add to this
Delighted at being star of the week
- Q2 - Both go to school happily and enjoy sharing their learning
- Q3 - I feel my child could do more
Being in a composite class does seem to have an effect on some progress particularly for the older class children
I feel my child could be stretched more
- Q4 - Homework has been sporadic this year
Homework requests are inconsistent
Would prefer little or no homework, think children are tired and learn enough during the day
- Q5 - The school has been supportive to allow my child to progress when she has identified a desire to move up a level
- Q6 - Really like the new Learning Journals
Also like the new Learning Journals more informative
New Learning Journals make us feel really well informed
New Learning Journals are great
Learning Journals are fab!
Learning Journals will help
Although photographs added to the post (observation) in the journal helps bring the observation life
Learning Journal is great
Learning Journal is a great idea and I find it really helps to keep up with what my daughters are doing at school
Learning Journals are great
I feel Learning Journals are generic - it seems all the same is written about each child.
- Q7 - Bullying issues dealt with promptly / appropriately
Issues with bullying have been deal with efficiently
- Q9 - Seem to have detailed knowledge of learning and personality
- Q10 - Costs from trips etc. too high this year. In fact they have risen significantly this year. We need a balance.
There needs to be a balance on need to enhance projects and a "nice to do"
- Q11 - Nice to have a teacher / head teacher meeting children when they arrive at school
As a parent visiting the school I have felt very welcome and staff are helpful
Reception and some support staff are not welcoming (especially Mrs McGlade retired)
- Q13 - I think it is unfair to tell the children to "invite" their parents to school during the day as many parents work and can't make it (8 agree)
Can be a bit of a juggle but think great opportunity to share school experience
- Q15 - Wisepay very good - not heard of other schools using it
Learning Journals are a great imitative (1 agree)
Certainly feels that way!
- Q16 - Yes, with the new head teacher!
- Q17 - Very much dependent on the teacher
